FIXTURE DOCUMENT FOR TESTS: this is not a real order and quotes no real filing.
The Respondent is Knight Capital Americas LLC, a broker-dealer that made markets in thousands of stocks.
On August 1, 2012, the Respondent sent more than 4 million orders into the market in 45 minutes while trying to fill 212 customer orders.
The Respondent did not have a written procedure to check that new code reached every one of its eight servers.

The Respondent lost more than $460 million from the positions it did not mean to take.
The Respondent agreed to pay a civil money penalty of $12 million.
The Respondent consented to this Order without admitting or denying the findings.
No individual is charged in this Order.